

What The GURUs Won't Tell You Is Keeping You Poor!

The internet is covered with ads promising you riches and wealth, very little work required and our system does it all for you.... you have seen them. You would be better off believing in the tooth fairy. If the above is true why is the average failure rate in these organizations over 90%. Not sure why the person is always someone who 2,3,4 or 5 years ago was poor but now rich. Maybe so you believe you can do this too and it will be easy. Do not fall for it. To be Building Financial Freedom requires a Global Mentor and it requires work to be successful.

The failure rate in most programs stems from their inadequate training, in most cases they are not using cutting edge technology, nor are they teaching wealth building techniques. Instead they are focusing on getting sales and that is only on small part of the overall picture. Do yourself a favor and commit to finding someone to show you the way.

You should not be scared of failing. You should be scared of doing nothing. You see doing nothing will almost guarantee you that you will retire like 97% of the other Americans and have to live on a significantly reduced budget. To me this is not living it is existing. If you are serious about building financial freedom, then read on and take action.

You have not started a home based business? What are you waiting for? Never in the history of mankind has there been a better opportunity to become financially free. Your challenge will be, How do you learn how to make money before you go broke. You see there SOOOOOOO many gimmicks, misrepresentations, and out right lies on the internet that you could easily spend 10s of thousands of dollars trying to figure this out.

The great thing about the good old US of A, is that anyone can become anything they set their mind to, if you work smart and put in the effort to achieve more. Never before in the history of mankind has there been so much opportunity available to the average person. With the World Wide Web at everyone's finger tips, you can accomplish anything you desire. Will you take the action necessary to reach your goals and dreams or will you continue to fail to prepare properly for your future.

You must track your expenses verses your income each month on the business side and personal side. You are going into business and this means knowing where you at financially each day. If you have a true mentor, they can show you systems that will do this for you easily. In addition to the tracking they can show you how to save money. If your mentor cannot do this, then find a new one. Fire THEM NOW.

How do you currently track your income verses expenses? You don't?...Then start... There are some system that will do this effortlessly once you set them up. Set yourself up for success and get to making money.

If your mentor, coach or up line does not have a system that assists you in creating a Wealth Building Machine, then RUN AWAY, DROP THEM IMMEDIATELY. Your mentor needs to be a Global Mentor. He needs to be able to get you help in managing your finances, help in building your Money Team, training you to lead your teams, teach you the latest internet techniques and develop software from the collect team's master minding. If they currently do not do this...get a new mentor and make them Global.

Most gurus will tell you to go to elance.com or another site and your outsourcing problems are over. Nothing could be farther than the truth. You could spend 10s of thousands of dollars learning these systems. Your mentor should be teaching you to effectively use these systems.

Building Financial Freedom needs to start for you TODAY. Procrastination only takes money out of your pocket and extends your retirement date. Why retire when you are old...how much fun is that? NONE. Make the choice to be free and take action.
